The King of love my Shepherd is, Whose goodness faileth never;
I nothing lack if I am His, And He is mine for ever.
Where streams of living water flow, my ransom'd soul He leadeth,
And where the verdant pastures grow, with food celestial feedeth.
Perverse and foolish, oft I stray'd, But yet in love He sought me,
And on His shoulder gently laid, And home rejoicing brought me.
In death's dark vale I fear no ill, With Thee, dear Lord, beside me;
Thy rod and staff my comfort still, Thy Cross before to guide me.
Thou spread'st a table in my sight, Thy unction grace bestoweth,
And O the transport of delight, with which my cup o'erfloweth.
And so through all the length of days, Thy goodness faileth never;
Good Shepherd may I sing Thy praise Within Thy house for ever!
Amen.

Offertory Response—(Choir and Congregation)

We give Thee but Thine own
Whate'er the gift may be
All that we have is Thine alone
A trust, O Lord, from Thee

And be gracious unto you. Amen.

Longing for rest everlasting. Bells are chiming, calling.
Surely in temple made with hands, God, the most high, is not dwelling.

Yet He whom heavens can not contain, Chose to abide on earth with men,
Built in our bodies His temple.

PROFESSOR JAMES T. CLELAND, Presiding Minister

Organ—Toccata and Adagio in C Major Bach

Call to Worship—Prayer Guion-Downing

Lord, in this hour of tumult, Lord, in this night of fears,
Keep open, Oh, keep open, My eyes, my heart, my ears.
Not blindly, not in hatred, Lord, let me do my part;
Keep open, Oh, keep open, dear Lord, My eyes, my mind, my heart!
Hear Thou my pleading, Hear Thou my prayer!

Hymn—O Worship the King (Lyons)
Adapted from J. M. Haydn

Prayer—(With the congregation joining in the Lord's Prayer)

Anthem—Come Let Us Sing Mascagni-Howorth
Soloist: Miss Jane Watkins, Soprano

Hear us O Lord, we humbly bow before Thee, O Lord we come before Thy presence.
Hear us Father, we beseech Thee, Have mercy on us, and incline our hearts to keep Thy Law. Hallelujah!
O come, let us sing unto the Lord, Let us praise Him with song and adoration,
Let us praise Him wtih psaltry and harp, Let us sing of our great salvation.
Hear us Father, Hear us while we sing, Let us lift up our hearts unto God, our strength,
Let us sing unto Christ ever glorious; Let us rejoice in the strength of our salvation.
Let us come with a song ever praising His name. Let us lift up our hearts unto God.
We will sing of the Lord. Praise the Lord!

Hymn—Blest Are the Pure in Heart (St. Thomas)
From Williams' Psalmody, 1770

Scripture

Offertory Anthem—Built on a Rock Christiansen
(Repeated by request)

Built on a Rock the Church doth stand, Even when steeples are falling;
Crumbled have spires in every land, Bells still are chiming and calling;
Calling the young and old to rest, But above all the soul distrest,
Longing for rest everlasting. Bells are chiming, calling.
Surely in temple made with hands, God, the most high, is not dwelling,
High above earth His temple stands, All earthly temples excelling;
Yet He whom heavens can not contain, Chose to abide on earth with men,
Built in our bodies His temple.

Offertory Response—(Choir and Congregation)

We give Thee but Thine own
Whate'er the gift may be
All that we have is Thine alone
A trust, O Lord, from Thee.

Sermon—"When Temples Disappear" Dr. Frank S. Hickman
Dean of the Chapel

Benediction

Response by Choir—The Lord Bless You and Keep You Lutkin

The Lord bless you and keep you, the Lord lift His countenance upon you,
And give you peace, the Lord make His face to shine upon you,
And be gracious unto you. Amen.

Organ—Hymn of Glory Pietro Yon

ORGAN RECITAL

Mildred L. Hendrix, University Organist, will present a recital in the University Chapel on Sunday afternoon, October 6, at 4:00 o'clock. The program follows:

Johann Sebastian Bach Prelude and Fugue in E Minor

This prelude and fugue was written during the early part of Bach's residence at Weimar. Schweitzer says that "the prelude must stand out as if it were hewn in marble." The fugue has been likened to the trumpet call at Judgment Day.

In this rather short work Bach has given us majesty and emotional grandeur intermingled in a most remarkable way.

Johann Sebastian Bach Andante (From the Sonata for Solo Violin No. 3)

This lovely andante is arranged for organ by Ruth Graham.

Johann Sebastian Bach Fugue in C Major (The "Fanfare")

The Fanfare fugue was discovered recently and published by the B. F. Woods Company. An excellent recording has been made by E. Power Biggs. This work probably was written by Bach while still in his teens. Its subject is built on the notes of a C major chord, and this theme is used effectively as a trumpet fanfare throughout.

Jaromir Weinberger — Bible Poems

1. "Abide with us: for it is toward evening, and the day is far spent." St. Luke XXIV, 28, 29.
2. Lord Jesus Walking on the Sea. St. Matthew XIV, 23, 24, 25.
3. The Marriage in Cana of Galilee. St. John II, 1. "This wedding music is based on four tones which form the Basso ostinato."
4. Hosanna. St. John XII, 13.
5. The Last Supper. St. Luke XXII, 14.
6. Hear, O Israel (Old Hebrew Choral). St. Mark XII, 29.

Jaromir Weinberger was born in Prague in 1896. He wrote the six Preludes while in New York during 1939. He says, "They were inspired by the New Testament, and in them I have attempted to give symbolic expression to the Biblical quotations."

Marcel Dupré — Vepres Du Commun
Antiphon 3
Magnificat 6

These short pieces are from a set of fifteen. The Antiphon 3 is lyric in style and in sharp contrast with the Magnificat which forms the finale of the entire group.

Marcel Dupré, eminent French organist, has been teaching in Chicago this past summer and now is on concert tour in this country.

Garth Edmundson — Bells Through the Trees (Nocturne)

Garth Edmundson, composer and organist, lives at Newcastle, Pennsylvania.

Louis Vierne — Carillon

The pedals give out the theme used on the carillon in the chapel of the Chateau de Longpont at Aisne. On the manuals we hear loud dissonant chords as in slow chanting. The ringing of many bells together produces a tremendous finale.

ERASMUS CLUB

The first meeting of the Erasmus Club for the academic year 1946-1947 will be held Monday, October 7, at 8:00 p.m., in the Green Room of East Duke Building. Professor Robert S. Rogers will read a paper on "History in a Private Letter of 1839."

How beautiful the Earth! How vast are its silences!
How wonderful are its simplest creations!
How much more wonderful are you, my People!
The instruments of war clash; The silence of vast places is broken;
My most sacred creations lie in dust; And you, my People,
You, my most wonderful creation, You lie broken and bleeding,
Rent, heart, soul and mind, In the throes of war, In the throes of wicked war!
Rise, my People! Hear me in the stillness of your hearts;
Hear me in the sanctuary of your souls; Hear me at the altar of your minds:
The Earth is lovely still; Sacred are its vast silences.
How wonderful are my simplest creations. Wonderful still are you!

Soloist: William Kirkpatrick, Tenor

Great is Jehovah, the Lord, The earth and the heavens bear witness to His might!
'Tis heard in the blasts of the storm, In the roar of the loud thundering stream.
Great is Jehovah the Lord, and mighty His pow'r.
'Tis heard in rustling leaves on the green forest branches, Seen in the fields rich with golden grain,
In flowers the fairest, blushing at dawn. 'Tis seen where stars strew the blue vault of heaven.
Fierce it sounds in the thunder's dread roll, And flames in the lightning's swift and death-dealing flash.
Still clearer thy throbbing heart proclaims Jehovah's pow'r and might,
Still clearer thy heart to thee proclaims Jehovah's pow'r, The Lord God Almighty.
When to heav'n thou dost pray, Imploring grace and compassion.
Great is Jehovah, the Lord.

Offertory Anthem—O Lord God, Unto Whom Vengeance Belongeth Robert Baker
Soloist: Clarence Smith, Baritone

O Lord God, unto whom vengeance belongeth: O God, show thyself.
Lift up thyself, thou Judge of the earth: render a reward to the proud.
Lord, how long shall the wicked triumph? How long shall they utter and speak hard things?
They break in pieces thy people. They slay the widow and stranger:
And murder the fatherless. Yet they say, The Lord shall not see.
Man that is in honor and understandeth not is like the beasts that perish.
For when he dieth, he shall carry nothing away: his glory shall not descend after him.
The fear of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom: a good understanding have all they that do his commandments.
I will praise thee, O Lord. I will sing unto thee among the people.
Be thou exalted, O God; let thy glory he above all the earth.
I will praise thee, O Lord.

Offertory Response—(Choir and Congregation)

We give Thee hut Thine own
Whate'er the gift may be
All that we have is Thine alone
A trust, O Lord, from Thee.

Sermon—"Swearing to One's Own Hurt"
Professor James T. Cleland
Preacher to the University

Benediction

Response by Choir—The Lord Bless You and Keep You Lutkin

The Lord bless you and keep you, the Lord lift His countenance upon you,
And give you peace, the Lord make His face to shine upon you,
And be gracious unto you. Amen.

Organ—Hymn of Glory Yon

ORGAN RECITAL

Mildred L. Hendrix, University Organist, will present a recital on Sunday afternoon, November 3, at 4:00 o'clock in the University Chapel.

The program follows:

Johann Pachelbel Toccata in E Minor

Born in Nuremburg in 1653, Pachelbel occupies an important place in music history as a direct musical ancestor of Johann Sebastian Bach. His toccata is one of the most brilliant in pre-Bach organ literature.

Johann Pachelbel Magnificat—My Soul Doth Magnify the Lord

The melody is a form of Tonus Peregrinus, which has been used with the Magnificat since the sixteenth century. The hymn is based on the Magnificat of Joseph Klug. Pachelbel's version was obviously intended to be played expressively instead of in the grand manner.

Jacques Arcadelt Ave Maria

Arcadelt was born in 1514 and died in 1570. Franz Liszt has arranged this melody for organ and Clarence Dickinson has edited and used it in his historical recital series.

Felix Borowski Sonata for Organ No. I
Allegro ma non troppo
Andante
Allegro con fuoco

Borowski, whose name and style of writing seem distinctly Russian, was born in England in 1872. After studying in Germany he came to Chicago to become a leading critic, composer and educator. He has written several organ sonatas, which have melodic appeal.

Darius Milhaud Pastorale

This modern Pastorale has the light French touch and lyric impressionism.

Darius Milhaud was born at Aix in Provence, France, in 1900. In 1919 he was instrumental in forming the famous Parisian group of composers known as "The Six." He is at present Professor of Music at Mills College, California.

Harvey Gaul Ancient Hebrew Prayer of Thanksgiving

The composer notes that this Prayer was "taken from Chassitic melodies and that magnificent old hymn Adon Olom."

Gaul was born in New York in 1881. He studied in England with Dr. Armes and in Paris attended the Schola Cantorum. A pupil of D'indy, Widor, Guilmant and Decaux, he later returned to America to play the organ in New York, Cleveland and Pittshurgh.

Richard Keys Biggs "Prelude on the Theme B-A-C-H

The theme on the notes B flat, A, C and B natural has been used by many composers since Bach. In this Prelude it is used in wide contrasts.

Richard Keys Biggs is a brilliant composer whose organ works are gaining widespread recognition. Biggs is at present organist at the Church of the Blessed Sacrament in Hollywood.

Lynnwood Farnam Toccata on "Filii et Filiae"

The composer has developed a brilliant toccata on an old chorale melody which is heard in the hass. Farnam died in New York in 1930.

For all who watch tonight, In sorrow, pain or care,
Oh Father, may they know that Thou Dost all their hurden hear.
For all who weep tonight, The hearts that cannot rest,
Reveal Thy love, that wondrous love, Which gave for us Thy Best.
For all who wake tonight, Love's tender watch to keep,
Watcher divine, Thyself draw nigh, Thou who dost never sleep.
For all who fear tonight, What e'er the dread may he,
We ask for them the perfect peace Of hearts that rest in Thee.
Our own beloved tonight, O Father, keep, and where
Our love and succour cannot reach, Now hless them thro' our prayer.

Scripture

Offertory Anthem—Recessional Reginald DeKoven
Soloists: John R. Anderson, Baritone; Charles Whiteley, Jr., Tenor

God of our fathers, known of old, Lord of our far-flung battle line,
Beneath whose awful hand we hold Dominion over palm and pine;
Lord God of Hosts, be with us yet, Lest we forget!
The tumult and the shouting dies, The Captains and the Kings depart,
Still stands thine ancient sacrifice, An humble and a contrite heart.
Far call'd, our navies melt away, On dune and headland sinks the fire,
Lo, all our pomp of yesterday Is one with Nineveh and Tyre!
Judge of the nations, spare us yet, Lest we forget!
If drunk with sight of pow'r we loose Wild tongues that have not Thee in awe,
Such hoasting as the Gentiles use, Or lesser hreeds without the law.
For heathen heart that puts her trust In reeking tube and iron shard
All valiant dust that huilds on dust, And guarding calls not Thee to guard,
For frantic hoast and foolish word, Thy mercy on Thy people, Lord! Amen.

Offertory Response—(Choir and Congregation)

All that we have is Thine alone
A trust, O Lord, from Thee.

DR. FRANK S. HICKMAN, Presiding Minister

Organ—Andante from Sonata V — Mendelssohn
Adagio from Sonata III — Mendelssohn

Call to Worship—A Morning Prayer — Sibelius-Carroll

The morning sun dispels the darkened cloud, Sun of my soul, I cry aloud
To Thee for faith and strength to carry on, Thro' darkest night till break of dawn.
The morning sun gives birth to ev'ry day: To Thee, my God, I kneel and pray.

Hymn—O God, beneath Thy Guiding Hand (Duke Street) — John Hatton

Prayer—(With the Congregation joining in the Lord's Prayer)

Anthem—How Lovely Is Thy Dwelling Place from "Requiem" — J. Brahms

How lovely is Thy dwelling place, O Lord of Hosts!
For my soul, it longeth, yea, fainteth, for the courts of the Lord;
My soul and body crieth out, yea, for the living God.
Blest are they that dwell within Thy house; they praise Thy name evermore.

Hymn—God of Our Fathers, Known of Old (Melita) — J. B. Dykes

Scripture

Offertory Anthem—God of the Open Air — Noble Cain
(Written for and dedicated to the Chapel Choir, J. Foster Barnes, Director.)

These are the things I prize and hold of dearest worth:
Light of the sapphire skies, Peace of the silent hills,
Shelter of forest, Comfort of the grass, Music of birds, murmur of little rills,
Shadows of clouds that swiftly pass, and after showers,
The smell of flowers, And of the good brown earth, And best of all,
Along the way, Friendship and mirth.
So let me keep these treasures of the humble heart in true possession, owning them by love
And when at last I can no longer move among them freely, but must part
From the green fields and waters clear, Let me not creep into some darkened room and hide,
And hide from all that makes the world so bright and dear,
But throw the windows wide to welcome in the light;
Then, while I clasp some well beloved hand, Let me once more have sight of the far sky
And of the smiling land! Then gently fall on sleep,
And breathe my body back to Nature's care, my spirit back to Thee,
God of the open air!

Offertory Response—(Choir and Congregation)

We give Thee but Thine own
Whate'er the gift may be
All that we have is Thine alone
A trust, O Lord, from Thee.

Sermon—"The Religion of a Nationalist"
Professor James T. Cleland
Preacher to the University

ORGAN RECITAL

Mildred L. Hendrix, University Organist, will present a recital of Christmas music in the University Chapel on Sunday afternoon, December 1, at 4:00 o'clock. The program follows:

Everett Titcomb — Puer Natus Est

Titcomh uses many Gregorian themes in his organ compositions. In developing them, he maintains the original style and characteristics of the old Gregorian chant. This piece is from a set of four improvisations.

Louis-Claude d'Aquin — Noël sur les Flütes (Christmas Carols from Lorraine)

Louis-Claude d'Aquin was horn in Paris in 1694. He was the organist at St. Paul's (Paris) until his death in 1772. It is said that when he played his book of Noëls for the midnight mass on Christmas Eve, all Paris thronged to hear him. This particular Noël is played entirely on the flute stops.

Johann Sebastian Bach — In dulci jubilo (2 settings)

In dulci jubilo is the melody of a sacred Christmas herceuse of the fourteenth century. In the first setting, Bach wrote a quietly flowing duet with sustained bass. In the second, Bach developed this primitive interlude form with freedom and vigor to express fully the words "Now let us sing with joy."

Johann Sebastian Bach — Jesu, Joy of Man's Desiring

This beautiful chorale, so closely associated with the Christmas season, is from the Cantata No. 147. It is arranged for organ solo hy E. Power Biggs.

Johannes Brahms — A Lovely Rose Is Blooming

Brahms wrote eleven choral-preludes whicb were puhlished soon after his death. In this Christmas choral, he took a melody which was harmonized hy Praetorious and developed it with delicate design and workmanship.

Myron J. Roberts

Improvisation on God Rest You Merry, Gentlemen

The origin of this popular English carol is unknown. Perhaps it is an old folk song. Myron Roberts, who teaches in the School of Music at the University of Nebraska, has made a brilliant organ arrangement of this joyous tune.

Peter Ilyitch Tschaikowsky — Dance of the Sugar Plum Fairy

This familiar dance, one of the Christmas fantasies from the Nutcracker Suite, is transcrihed for organ hy Edwin Arthur Kraft.

Leo Sowerby — Carillon

The Carillon opens quietly with slightly dissonant harmonies. Soon, soft bells are heard in a secondary theme, while the original melody is repeated in the ringing of chimes.

Sowerhy, who lives in Chicago, is one of our most distinguished American composers.

Henry Mulet — Carillon-Sortie

In this work, we find the brilliant French cocept of the carillon. The effect of many bells ringing together in wild abandon produces a bizarre and joyous finale. It is in wide contrast with the softer Carillon by Sowerhy.

Mulet was the organist at the Church of Sacré Coeur in Paris for many years.

ERASMUS CLUB MEETING ON DECEMBER 2

A Lovely Rose Is Blooming	Brahms
Now Let Us Sing with Joy	Bach

Call to Worship—Fanfare for Christmas Day Martin Shaw
Gloria in excelsis Deo.

Hymn—O Come, O Come, Immanuel (Veni Immanuel)
Ancient plain song, 13th Century

Prayer—(With the Congregation joining in the Lord's Prayer)

Anthem—I Wonder as I Wander (Appalachian Carol)
Arr. by Niles and Horton
Soloist: Stanley Walker, Tenor

I wonder as I wander, out under the sky, How Jesus the Savior did come for to die,
For poor on'ry people like you and like I, I wonder as I wander, out under the sky.
When Mary birthed Jesus, 'twas in a cow's stall, With wise men and farmers and shepherds and all.
But high from God's heaven a star's light did fall, And the promise of ages it then did recall.
If Jesus had wanted for any wee thing, A star in the sky, or a bird on the wing,
Or all of God's angels in heav'n for to sing, He surely could have it, 'cause he was the King.

Hymn—There's a Song in the Air (Christmas Song)
K. P. Harrington

Scripture

Offertory Anthem—The Shepherds' Story Clarence Dickinson
Soloists: Mrs. A. E. Stanley, Soprano; George Clark, Tenor; John P. Waggoner, Baritone

Nowell! Sing we clear! Holpen are all folk on earth, Born is God's Son so dear.
To Bethlem did they go, The Shepherds three, To see whe'r it were so or no,
Whether Christ were born or no to set men free. Masters, in this hall,
Hear ye news today Brought over sea, And ever you I pray.
Nowell! Sing we clear! Holpen are all folk on earth, Boru is God's Son so dear.
Then to Bethlem town did the Shepherds go, and in a sorry place heard the oxen low.
Therein did they see a sweet and goodly May, Upon the straw she lay.
And a little child On her arm had she. "Wot ye who this is?" Said the hinds to me.
Ox and ass him know kneeling on their knee: Wondrous joy had I This little Babe to see.
Nowell! This is Christ the Lord, Masters, be ye glad!
Christmas is come in, And no folk should be sad.

Offertory Response—(Choir and Congregation)

We give Thee but Thine own
Whate'er the gift may be
All that we have is Thine alone
A trust, O Lord, from Thee.

Sermon—"What God Ignored at Advent"
Professor James T. Cleland
Preacher to the University

Benediction

Response by Choir—The Lord Bless You and Keep You Lutkin

The Lord bless you and keep you, the Lord lift His countenance upon you,
And give you peace, the Lord make His face to shine upon you,
And be gracious unto you. Amen.

REV. ROBERT N. DUBOSE, Presiding Minister

Organ—Noël sur les Flütes — d'Aquin
"Gesu Bambino" — Yon
Puer Natus Est — Titcomb

Call to Worship—The Shepherds' Story — Clarence Dickinson

Nowell! Sing we clear! Holpen are all folk on earth, Born is God's Son so dear.
Nowell! This is Christ the Lord, Masters, be ye glad!
Christmas is come in, And no folk should be sad.

Hymn—Hark! The Herald Angels Sing (Mendelssohn) — Mendelssohn-Bartholdy

Prayer—(With the Congregation joining in the Lord's Prayer)

Anthem—Bethlehem Night — Arthur Warrell

Sung the last song in Bethlehem, The last cup drained deep;
The revellers in Bethlehem Fell heavily asleep.
And no on wakes in Bethlehem Upon a starry night,
Upon a sound in Bethlehem Of camel hells at night.
Of lowly shepherds lilting A little air so sweet,
Of the Babe at Mary's hosom, The kings at Mary's feet.

Hymn—Hearken, All! What Holy Singing (Gloria) — Old French Carol

Scripture

Offertory Anthem—Star of Courage — Jacques Wolfe

Soloist: George Clark, Tenor

Once on the hills of Galilee A star arose to guide the Three;
And they were wise Who followed far, The light of courage in a star!
For they were lost beside the sea That has its shores on Galilee,
And they were worn and they were chill, Who saw the heav'n with brightness fill!
And they were come from far to see The Child of God in Galilee,
They followed in the holy light That went before them flaming white!
As on the hills of Galilee A star once flamed to guide the Three,
They too are wise who follow far, With courage guiding like a star!

Offertory Response—(Choir and Congregation)

We give Thee but Thine own
Whate'er the gift may be
All that we have is Thine alone
A trust, O Lord, from Thee.

Sermon—"The Question of Security"

Dr. Edwin McNeill Poteat
President, Colgate-Rochester Divinity School, Rochester, N. Y.

Lord of all being, throned afar, Thy glory flames from sun and star;
Centre and soul of ev'ry sphere, Yet to each loving heart how near!
Sun of our life, Thy quick'ning ray Sheds on our path the glow of day;
Star of our hope, Thy softened light Cheers the long watches of the night.
Our midnight is Thy smile withdrawn; Our noontide is Thy gracious dawn;
Our rainbow arch, Thy mercy's sign; All, save the clouds of sin are Thine.
Lord of all life, below, above, Whose light is truth, Whose warmth is love,
Before Thy ever blazing throne We ask no lustre of our own.
Grant us Thy truth to make us free, And kindly hearts that yearn for Thee,
Till all Thy living altars claim One holy light, one heav'nly flame. Amen.

Scripture

Offertory Anthem—What of the Night? R. G. Thompson
Soloist: Clarence Smith, Baritone

What of the night, O watchman? Turn to the East thine eyes,
And say is there any token Of the dawning in the skies?
Or do the shadows linger, Thy lips, are they sad and dumb,
With never a word of gladness That the tarrying morn is come?
Then answer'd the patient watchman From the mountain's lonely height,
To the waiting souls in the valley, I can see the breaking light;
There's a glow on the far horizon That is growing more wide and clear,
And soon shall the sun he flinging His splendours both far and near.
What of the night, O Watchman? Rises to Thee our cry;
Prophet divine of Naz'reth, Make to our hearts reply:
Over the earth's wild warfare Comes not a time more fair,
Swords into ploughshares beaten, Peace throned ev'rywhere?
Wait, said the Heav'nly Watchman, Let not thy spirit quail,
Strife shall not be eternal, Harmony shall prevail.
Battle clouds all shall scatter, Hatred shall he outcast,
Love's ever broad'ning glory Break on the world at last!

Offertory Response—(Choir and Congregation)

We give Thee but Thine own
Whate'er the gift may be
All that we have is Thine alone
A trust, O Lord, from Thee.

Sermon—"Living an Ordered Life in a Disordered World" Dr. Harold Cooke Phillips
Minister, The First Baptist Church
Cleveland, Ohio

Benediction

Response by Choir—God Be in My Head H. W. Davies

God be in my head, And in my understanding;
God be in mine eyes, And in my looking;
God be in my mouth, And in my speaking;
God be in my heart, And in my thinking;
God be at mine end, And at my departing.

Organ—Little Fugue in G minor Bach

We praise Thee, O God, we acknowledge Thee to be the Lord.
All the earth doth worship Thee, the Father everlasting.
To Thee all Angels cry aloud, the Heav'ns, and all the Pow'rs therein.
To Thee Cherubim and Seraphim continually do cry, Holy, Lord God of Sabaoth;
Heav'n and earth are full of the majesty of Thy glory.
The glorious company of the Apostles praise Thee.
The goodly fellowship of the Prophets praise Thee.
The noble army of Martyrs praise Thee.
The holy Church thro'out all the world doth acknowledge Thee;
The Father of an infinite majesty, Thine adorable, true, and only Son;
Also the Holy Ghost, the Comforter. Thou art the King of Glory, O Christ.
Thou art the everlasting Son of the Father.
When Thou tookest upon Thee to deliver man, Thou didst humble Thyself to be born of a Virgin.
When Thou hadst overcome the sharpness of death, Thou didst open the kingdom of heaven to all believers.
Thou sittest at the right hand of God, in the glory of the Father.
We believe that Thou shalt come to be our Judge.
We therefore pray Thee, help Thy servants, whom Thou hast redeemed with Thy precious blood.
Make them to be number'd with Thy saints in glory everlasting.
O Lord, save Thy people, and bless Thine heritage.
Govern them, and lift them up for ever.
Day by day we magnify Thee, and we worship Thy Name ever, world without end.
Vouchsafe, O Lord, to keep us this day without sin.
O Lord, have mercy upon us, let Thy mercy be upon us, as our trust is in Thee.
O Lord in Thee have I trusted: Let me never be confounded.

Offertory Response—(Choir and Congregation)

All that we have is Thine alone
A trust, O Lord, from Thee.

God be at mine end, And at my departing.

ORGAN RECITAL

Mildred L. Hendrix, University Organist, will present a recital of all Bach music on Sunday afternoon, February 2, at 4:00 o'clock in the University Chapel. The program follows:

MUSIC OF JOHANN SEBASTIAN BACH

The selections to be played in this organ recital of the music of Bach have been chosen in order to show the great contrast found in his compositions.

Bach began his career as a composer by writing choral preludes, and returned to this form for his last works. In these, we have the poet expressing his most intimate thoughts. His sonatas and suites may be described as chamber music for the organ. The Passacaglia, Chaconne, and the preludes and fugues show Bach, the virtuoso, writing with brilliance and majesty.

Prelude and Fugue No. VII in A Minor
From Eight Little Preludes and Fugues

Bach wrote the Eight Short Preludes and Fugues for use in teaching his pupils at Weimar. However, as E. Harold Geer says, "They are delightful musical miniatures."

The prelude is a little toccata. The simple fugue is made interesting by its flowing 6/8 time.

Pastorale

I. Pastorale
II. Allemande
III. Aria
IV. Giga

The Pastorale is a suite in four movements. Written with the clarity and in the style of chamber music, the first theme is of a pastorale nature. The second movement is like a musette in binary form. The third is a lovely melody suggestive of a violin solo. The fourth movement is again in binary form and fugal style.

Little Fugue in G Minor

This is sometimes called the "short" G minor fugue. There has been some criticism concerning its imperfect construction. Bonnet answers this by saying, "The Master, throwing off the fetters of scholastic rules, abstains from a mutation in the answer, and thus rightly avoids deforming the shapely figure of the subject."

This fugue is full of youthful spirits and gaiety and calls for bright, rather than loud, registration.

Choral Prelude — Ich Ruf zu Dir

The pleading of "I Call to Thee, Lord Jesus Christ" is felt in this chorale from the Orgelbüchlein. It is in trio form, and each voice speaks its message of faith in God.

Chaconne from the Partita No. II in D Minor for Violin Solo
Transcribed for organ by Arno Landmann

The chaconne, like the passacaglia, is derived from an ancient dance form in triple time, employing a given theme in twenty or more variations. The chaconne differs from the true passacaglia in that the theme does not remain primarily in the base, but moves about through the four voices.

Bach's Chaconne was written as a final movement of a Partita for unaccompanied violin. It is seldom performed on the organ. However, its glorious climaxes (which are three in number), are eminently suited to an instrument of this magnitude.

This transcription by Landmann seems to retain much of the character of the original version. One wonders why Bach, who often transcribed the violin music of other composers for some of his greatest masterpieces, did not subject his own Chaconne to the same treatment.

HILLEL MEETINGS

The next meeting of the Hillel Group, Jewish student organization, will be on Sunday afternoon, February 2, at 3:00 o'clock in the Presidents' Room of the Woman's College Auditorium. In addition to a disenssion of the program for the coming semester, Rabbi Strnmpf, Hillel director at the University of North Carolina, will speak.

Sabbath evening services for the Hillel Group are held every Friday evening at 8:00 o'clock in York Chapel.

All students of the Jewish faith are invited to participate in these meetings.

DUKE-U. N. C. PHYSICS COLLOQUIUM

The Duke-U. N. C. Physics Colloquium will meet Thursday, February 6, at 8:00 p.m. in the Physics Building. Dr. Marguerite M. Rogers will speak on "The Photographic Emulsion as a Tool in Nuclear Research."

Scripture

Offertory Anthem—Ho! Every One That Thirsteth G. C. Martin

Soloist: John Anderson, Bass-baritone

Ho! ev'ry one that thirsteth, come ye to the waters,
And he that hath no money; come ye, buy, and eat.
Wherefore do ye spend money for that which is not bread?
And your labor for that which satisfieth not?
Hearken diligently unto me, eat ye that which is good,
And let your soul delight itself in fatness.
Incline your ear, and come unto me, hear, and your soul shall live.
Let the wicked forsake his way, and the unrighteous man his thoughts;
And let him return unto the Lord, and He will have mercy upon him;
And to our God, for He will abundantly pardon.
Then ye shall go out with joy, and be led forth with peace:
The mountains and hills shall break forth before you into singing.
And all the trees of the fields shall clap their hands.
Instead of the thorn shall come up the firtree,
Instead of the brier shall come up the myrtletree.

Offertory Response—(Choir and Congregation)

We give Thee but Thine own
Whate'er the gift may be
All that we have is Thine alone
A trust, O Lord, from Thee.

Arr. by Lowell Mason

Prayer—(With the Congregation joining in the Lord's Prayer)

Tenor Solo—If with All Your Hearts from "Elijah" Mendelssohn
George Clark

Ye people, rend your hearts, and not your garments for your transgressions
The prophet Elijah hath sealed the heavens through the word of God.
I therefore say to ye, Forsake your idols, return to God; for He is slow to anger,
And merciful and kind, and gracious, and repenteth Him of the evil.
"If with all your hearts ye truly seek me, ye shall ever surely find me."
Thus saith our God. Oh! that I knew where I might find Him, that I might even come before His presence!

Hymn—O For a Heart to Praise My God (Belmont)
From William Gardiner's Sacred Melodies

Scripture

Offertory Anthem—Seek Ye the Lord J. V. Roberts
Soloist: Stanley Walker, Tenor

Seek ye the Lord while He may be found, call ye upon Him while He is near:
Let the wicked forsake his way, and the unrighteous man his thoughts,
And return unto the Lord, and He will have mercy, and abundantly pardon. Amen.

Offertory Response—(Choir and Congregation)

We give Thee but Thine own
Whate'er the gift may be
All that we have is Thine alone
A trust, O Lord, from Thee.

Sermon—"If . . . with all thy heart" Dr. Frank S. Hickman
Dean of the Chapel

Benediction

Response by Choir—God Be in My Head H. W. Davies

God be in my head, And in my understanding;
God be in mine eyes, And in my looking;
God be in my mouth, And in my speaking;
God be in my heart, And in my thinking;
God be at mine end, And at my departing.

Prayer—(With the Congregation joining in the Lord's Prayer)

Anthem—Fierce Raged the Tempest o'er the Deep Candlyn

Fierce raged the tempest o'er the deep, Watch did Thine anxious servants keep,
But Thou wast wrapped in guileless sleep, Calm and still.
"Save, Lord, we perish!" was the cry, "O save us in our agony!"
Thy word above the storm rose high, "Peace, be still."
The wild winds hushed; the angry deep Sank, like a little child, to sleep;
The sullen billows ceased to leap, At Thy will.
So when our life is clouded o'er, And storm winds drift us from the shore,
Say, lest we sink to rise no more, "Peace, be still."

Hymn—Rock of Ages (Toplady) Thomas Hastings

Scripture

Offertory Anthem—God, My Shepherd, Walks Beside Me Bach-Dickinson

Soloist: William Kirkpatrick, Tenor

God, my Shepherd, walks beside me, And I know His way is best;
Where His tender care doth guide me, Shall no evil e'er betide me,
In His love I calmly rest. The Lord my Guide vouchsafes to be,
To Him full trust I render; The Lord, my Shepherd, carries me
To pastures fair and tender: He leads me on by waters still,
My soul with comfort He doth fill, My Strength and sure Defender.

Offertory Response—(Choir and Congregation)

We give Thee but Thine own
Whate'er the gift may be
All that we have is Thine alone
A trust, O Lord, from Thee.

A Lenten Sermon Professor James T. Cleland

God be in my heart, And in my thinking;
God be at mine end, And at my departing.

ORGAN RECITAL ON MODERN AMERICAN MUSIC

On Sunday afternoon, March 2, at 4:00 o'clock, in the University Chapel, Mildred L. Hendrix, University Organist, will present a recital of modern American music.

The program follows:

Seth Bingham Harmonies of Florence
I. Florentine Chimes

"Cathedral bells, palace bells, church bells, cloister bells—all mingle in melodious clangor many times a day in Florence." The predominance of the interval of a fourth, often used to imitate the ringing of bells, is also found in Eastern music and lends to this composition an oriental quality.

Seth Bingham, a graduate of the Yale Music School, studied under Guilmant and Widor in Paris. He is organist at the Madison Avenue Presbyterian Church in New York City and Professor of Theory and Composition at Columbia University.

Joseph Clokey Mountain Sketches
I. Jagged Peaks in the Starlight
II. Wind in the Pine Trees
III. Canyon Walls

Joseph Clokey was born in New Albany, Indiana, August 28, 1890. He has recently retired from teaching at the University of Miami, Florida, to devote all of his time to composition. His writings include organ suites, four operas, and many beautiful choral works.

Eric Delamarter Nocturnes
II. The Fountain

The Fountain is the second of a set of three Nocturnes. It is faintly reminiscent of Ravel in its obviously atmospheric style.

Delamarter was born in Lansing, Michigan, in 1880. He was a pupil of Guilmant and Widor in Paris and associate conductor of the Chicago Symphony Orchestra from 1917 to 1936.

Leo Sowerby Meditations on Communion Hymns
I. Picardy
IV. Meditation

The hymn tune Picardy is developed in the style of the Russian liturgical music. The Meditation is, on the other hand, similar to the music used in the Protestant Church.

Leo Sowerby was born in Grand Rapids, Michigan, in 1895. He is organist at St. James Episcopal Church in Chicago and teaches composition and orchestration in the American Conservatory of Music. He is one of the outstanding American composers of organ music and has gained world wide recognition.

Hugh McAmis Dreams

This descriptive piece is dedicated to David McK. Williams. The melody is first heard, as if from a distance, on the French horn. The second theme, a trumpet call, grows to full crescendo, then gives way to the ethereal quietude of the first theme.

Hugh McAmis, a pupil of Dr. Williams, lost his life in World War II.

Clarence Dickinson Storm King Mountain Symphony
I. Allegro Maestoso
III. Scherzo

The composer has written an explanation of this work:

"This Symphony, in five movements, reflects the impressions made on the writer by the varying moods of the stately mountains which stand guard, as it were, over the Highlands of the Hudson.

"The first movement suggests the stern and stormy aspect of the rocky heights with moments of calm beauty and serenity. It is largely built around one short theme which is announced in the pedal thirty-two foot Bombarde.

"The Scherzo brings to mind the hobgoblins which disport themselves in the mountains with elfish glee. One among them is a mighty monster. His giant footsteps are heard in the pompous notes of the pedals."

List! the Cherubic host in thousand choirs
Touch their immortal harps of golden wires,
With those just spirits who wear victorious palms
Singing everlastingly devout and holy psalms.
And I heard the voice of harpers harping with their harps;
And they sung as it were a new song before the throne;
And no man could learn that song but they which were redeemed.

Robert Jackson

Offertory Anthem—Great and Marvellous from "The Holy City" Gaul

Great and marvellous are Thy works, Lord God Almighty;
Just and true are Thy ways, Thou King of Saints!
To Thee all angels cry aloud, the Heavens and all the Powers therein.
To Thee Cheruhim and Seraphim continually do cry, Holy, holy, holy is the Lord of Hosts!
Before the mountains were brought forth, or the earth and the world were made, Thou art from everlasting.
Alleluia! Amen.

For nought that He has made, above, below, Can part us from His love.

Blest are they that dwell within Thy house; they praise Thy name evermore!

Fierce it sounds in the thunder's dread roll, And flames in the lightning's swift aud death-dealing flash.
Still clearer thy throbbing heart proclaims Jehovah's pow'r and might,
The Lord God Almighty. When to beav'n thou dost pray,

MILDRED L. HENDRIX TO PRESENT ORGAN RECITAL ON SUNDAY AFTERNOON, MAY 4

Mildred L. Hendrix, University Organist, will present a recital in the University Chapel on Sunday afternoon, May 4, at 4:00 o'clock. Following is the program:

Benedetto Marcello Psalm XVIII

This psalm, "The Heavens Declare the Glory of God" (Psalm XIX in the King James version of the Bible), has been transcribed for organ by Theodore Dubois.

Benedetto Marcello was born in Venice in 1686. He set to music fifty psalms, using one to four voices with figured bass and occasional string accompaniment. These psalms have recently achieved great popularity among organists for use during church services and for recitals.

César Franck Prelude, Fugue, and Variation

Although Franck was a Belgian by birth, he spent so much of his life in Paris that he is usually considered a French composer.

The Prelude opens in short lilting phrases so typical of Franck. The Fugue develops the same theme on broader lines. The Variation returns to the graceful charm of the Prelude, this time with a flowing accompaniment.

Alexandre Guilmant Sonata No. III in C minor, Op. 56
Preludio
Adagio
Fuga

Guilmant, the brilliant French organist and composer, was a great influence in advancing organ music during the latter part of the last century.

The Third Sonata opens with a Preludio written in sonata form.

The Adagio begins with a lovely melody which is followed by a second short theme. A return of the first melody completes this movement.

The subject of the little fugue is easily recognized throughout the last movement by its scherzo-like quality. At the close of the sonata, there is a coda which goes back to the original theme of the Preludio.

Max Reger Benedictus, Op. 59 No. 9

Max Reger was born in Germany in 1873 and died in 1916. He was a prolific composer and, like his contemporary Karg-Elert, richly added to modern organ literature.

The Benedictus conveys a deeply religious feeling. It begins softly, and gradually works into a dignified fugue as it increases in volume.

Anatol Liadow La Tabatière A Musique

Tbis orchestral work has been transcribed for organ by Cbarles Heinroth. The use of high flutes, harp, and celesta gives this program piece the realistic effect of a music box.

Liadow was born in Russia in 1855 and died there in 1914. He was a pupil of Rimsky-Korsakoff and later taught at the St. Petersburg Conservatory: He was commissioned by the Imperial Geographical Society to collect Russian folk songs.

Richard Wagner Liebestod from Tristan and Isolde

Wagner, when forty-four years old, laid aside his work on tbe Ring of the Nibelung to write wbat he thought would be a light, short opera on the Tristan legend. He finished it two years later. Tristan and Isolde, in the opinion of many, transcends in beauty all tbat he ever produced.

Johann Sebastian Bach Passacaglia

The passacaglia was an old dance in triple time, used in a set of variations over a ground bass.

Bach composed the C minor Passacaglia during bis residence at Weimar. Its majestic theme is used twenty times in the same key. After the tenth variation, the theme moves from the bass to other parts before it returns to its original position for the final variations which build to a tremendous climax.

Dr. R. E. Gibson of the Applied Physics Laboratory of the Johns Hopkins University located at Silver Spring, Md., will speak on "Some Problems in the Physical Chemistry of Rockets." ORGAN RECITAL

The organ recital last Sunday afternoon, May 4, by Mildred L. Hendrix, University Organist, was interrupted because of mechanical difficulties with the organ. Mrs. Hendrix will, therefore, repeat her program on Sunday afternoon, May 11, at 4:00 o'clock in the University Chapel.

Following is the program:

Benedetto Marcello Psalm XVIII

This psalm, "The Heavens Declare the Glory of God" (Psalm XIX in the King James version of the Bible), has been transcribed for organ by Theodore Dubois.

Benedetto Marcello was born in Venice in 1686. He set to music fifty psalms, using one to four voices with figured bass and occasional string accompaniment. These psalms have recently achieved great popularity among organists for use during church services and for recitals.

Schubert Ave Maria

Bach-Gounod Ave Maria

These two well-known pieces are played in honor of Mother's Day.

Alexandre Guilmant Sonata No. III in C minor, Op. 56
Preludio
Adagio
Fuga

Guilmant, the brilliant French organist and composer, was a great influence in advancing organ music during the latter part of the last century.

The Third Sonata opens with a Preludio written in sonata form. The Adagio begins with a lovely melody which is followed by a second short theme. A return of the first melody completes this movement.

The subject of the little fugue is easily recognized throughout the last movement by its scherzo-like quality. At the close of the sonata, there is a coda which goes back to the original theme of the Preludio.

Max Reger Benedictus, Op. 59 No. 9

Max Reger was born in Germany in 1873 and died in 1916. He was a prolific composer and, like his contemporary Karg-Elert, richly added to modern organ literature.

The Benedictus conveys a deeply religious feeling. It begins softly, and gradually works into a dignified fugue as it increases in volume.

Anatol Liadow La Tabatière A Musique

This orchestral work has been transcribed for organ by Charles Heinroth. The use of high flutes, harp, and celesta gives this program piece the realistic effect of a music box.

Liadow was born in Russia in 1855 and died there in 1914. He was a pupil of Rimsky-Korsakoff and later taught at the St. Petersburg Conservatory. He was commissioned by the Imperial Geographical Society to collect Russian folk songs.

Richard Wagner Liebestod from Tristan and Isolde

Wagner, when forty-four years old, laid aside his work on the Ring of the Nibelung to write what he thought would be a light, short opera on the Tristan legend. He finished it two years later. Tristan and Isolde, in the opinion of many, transcends in beauty all that he ever produced.

Johann Sebastian Bach Passacaglia

The passacaglia was an old dance in triple time, used in a set of variations over a ground bass.

Bach composed the C minor Passacaglia during his residence at Weimar. Its majestic theme is used twenty times in the same key. After the tenth variation, the theme moves from the bass to other parts before it returns to its original position for the final variations which build to a tremendous climax.

DR. J. WALLACE HAMILTON TO DELIVER SERMON AT UNIVERSITY SERVICE OF WORSHIP SUNDAY, MAY 18

Dr. J. Wallace Hamilton, Minister, Pasadena Community Church, St. Petersburg, Fla., will deliver the sermon at the University Service of Worship Sunday, May 18, at 11:00 a.m., in the University Chapel. His subject will be "Unwilling Missionaries."

The order of service follows:

DR. FRANK S. HICKMAN, Presiding Minister

Organ—Credo In Unum Deum — Titcomb
Meditation — Vierne
Alleluia, Pascha Nostra — Titcomb

Call to Worship—A Morning Prayer — Sibelius-Carroll

The morning sun dispels the darkened cloud, Sun of my soul, I cry aloud
To Thee for faith and strength to carry on, Thro' darkest night till break of dawn.
The morning sun gives birth to ev'ry day: To Thee, my God, I kneel and pray.

Hymn—Heralds of Christ, Who Bear the King's Commands (National Hymn) — G. W. Warren

Prayer—(With the Congregation joining in the Lord's Prayer)

Anthem—On Jordan's Stormy Banks (White Spiritual) — R. Deane Shure

Inscribed to J. Foster Barnes and the Chapel Choir.

(Composer's Note: "This tune is probably the most famous of the early white spirituals of the deep South. The old Circuit Rider Preachers usually had the congregation sing in four parts. The tune, or melody, was lined out to the sopranos first, then the altos sang it on the second verse, followed by the tenors who did the third, finishing with basses who sang the tune on the fourth stanza with a burst of 'glory.' No books were used, and the other three parts improvised around the section carrying the tune. This arrangement adheres to that original custom.")

Lo, I'm bound for the promised land! On Jordan's stormy banks I stand and cast a wishful eye
To canaan's fair and happy land Where my possessions lie
All o'er those wide extended plains, Shines one eternal day,
There God the Son forever reigns, And scatters night away.
Lo! I'm bound for the promised land. Filled with delight, my raptured soul,
Would here no longer stay Though Jordan's waves around me roll,
Fearless I'd launch away. When shall I reach that happy place,
And be forever blest When shall I see my Father's face, And in His bosom rest?
I am bound for the promised laud. O who will come and go with me
I am bound for the promised land.

Hymn—In Christ There Is No East or West (St. Peter)
A. R. Reinagle

Scripture

Offertory Anthem—O Lord God, Unto Whom Vengeance Belongeth Robert Baker

Soloist: Clarence Smith, Baritone

O Lord God, unto whom vengeance belongeth: O God, show thyself.
Lift up thyself, thou Judge of the earth: render a reward to the proud.
Lord, how long shall the wicked triumph? How long shall they utter and speak hard things?
They break in pieces thy people. They slay the widow and stranger: and murder the fatherless.
Yet they say, The Lord shall not see.
Man that is in honor and understandeth not is like the beasts that perish.
For when he dieth, he shall carry nothing away: his glory shall not descend after him.
The fear of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom: a good understanding have all they that do his commandments.
I will praise thee, O Lord. I will sing unto thee among the people.
Be thou exalted, O God; let thy glory be above all the earth.
I will praise thee, O Lord.

Offertory Response—(Choir and Congregation)

We give Thee but Thine own
Whate'er the gift may be
All that we have is Thine alone
A trust, O Lord, from Thee.

Sermon—"Unwilling Missionaries"..Dr. J. Wallace Hamilton
Minister, Pasadena Community Church, St. Petershurg, Fla.

Benediction

Response by Choir—The Lord Bless You and Keep You Lutkin

The Lord bless you and keep you, the Lord lift His countenance upon you,
And give you peace, the Lord make His face to shine upon you,
And be gracious unto you. Amen.

Organ—Carillon Vierne
